MUNICIPAL ORDINANCE NO. 125

Series of 2000

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING WILDLIFE HUNTING IN BORACAY ISLAND AND THE ENTIRE MUNICIPALITY OF MALAY, AKLAN.

DEFINITIONS: "WILDLIFE" as defined in this ordinance include wild species of animals commonly found in some forested places in Boracay which according to old folks are natives in the area. This includes birds like parrots, eagle cahaw, etc: cats, fox, pigs, chickens, crocodiles/alligators, lizards, monkeys, terrestrial crustaceans, commonly found in some areas in the island and the entire Municipality;

WHEREAS, there is a need to preserve our wildlife species like birds, cats, monkeys, lizards and others in our tourist village in Boracay and the mainland as they are considered tourists attractions and form part of the preservation and protection of the environment;

WHEREAS, these wildlife species are vanishing in our forest as a result of careless hunter's joy for hunting and in order to save these endangered wildlife species in our area, the Sangguniang Bayan of Malay, Aklan in session assembled hereby ordained that;

SECTION 1. - PROHIBITING ACTS. Wildlife hunting in Boracay Island and the entire Municipality is strictly prohibited.

SECTION 2. - Only authorized persons, with permits from the local government of Malay will be allowed to catch or collect these species for study and preservation purposes.

SECTION 3. - PENALTY. Unauthorized persons caught hunting or selling these species will be penalized TWO HUNDRED PESOS (₱200.00) for each animal caught aside from the confiscation of the whole catch.

SECTION 4. - SUPPLEMENTARY CLAUSE. This ordinance supplements other basic laws on the protection and preservation of our wildlife species.

SECTION 5. - EFFECTIVITY. This ordinance shall take effect after proper publication and dissemination has been conducted in Boracay and the entire Municipality.

ADDENDUM:

SECTION 6. - COVERAGE. This ordinance is extended to the entire Municipality of Malay, Aklan. Also, the title of this ordinance is hereby modified to include the entire Municipality. Other sections and provisions remain unaltered in force and effect.

ENACTED. NOVEMBER 25, 1999.

APPROVED. JANUARY 13, 2000.
